

Course title: Postal Rules and Regulations
Course code: 12045
ECTS credits: 6
Requirements: none
Basic information
Level of studies: Undergraduate applied studies
Year of study: 2
Trimester: 4
Goal: Acquiring knowledge of the basics of regulations and legal norms, which affect the functioning of postal traffic.
Outcome: Students will be able to independently analyze the regulatory framework for the activities within postal traffic and electronic communications.
Contents of the course
Theoretical instruction
1. Introduction to the subject.
2. National and international sources of law.
3. Regulations prescribed in the postal sector.
4. Preconditions for the transfer of postal items and goods.
5. Regulation in the areas of postal traffic.
6. Procedures and recommendations.
7. National and international regulatory bodies.
8. Multilateral and bilateral international agreements.
Practical instruction (Problem solving sessions/Lab work/Practical training)
Textbooks and References
1. Poštanske direktive 2008/6/EC, 2002/39/EC, 97/67/EC
2. Zakon o poštanskih uslugama, Sl.glasnik 77/2019
3. Strategija razvoja poštanskih usluga u RS 2017-2020. Sl glasnik 2017.
4. Pravilnik o opštim uslovima za obavljanje poštanskih usluga, 2015.
5. Pravilnik o određivanju tarifnih stavova za UPU , 2016.
Number of active classes (weekly)
Lectures: 3
Practical classes: 0

Other types of classes: 0
Grading (maximum number of points: 100)
Pre-exam obligations: Points
Activities during lectures: -
Activities on practical exercises: -
Seminary work: -
Colloquium: 30
Final exam: Points
Written exam: 70
Oral exam: -
Lecturer:
Slavica Radosavljević, PhD
Associate: